ICY BOX IB-AC640-C3

External enclosure for Ultra Slim SATA drive

Think sustainably and reuse components

Give your old optical notebook drive an upgrade with our IB-AC640-C3 external enclosure. Transform your internal disc drive into a mobile CD, DVD, or Blu-ray drive with ease and open up new possibilities for your computing.

Universal flexibility and connectivity

The external enclosure is compatible with all Ultra SlimLine SATA drives with a height of up to 9.5 mm. You can then connect the drive to your PC or Mac, notebook or MacBook using the included combination cable with USB Type-C® and Type-A connector.

Stylish and practical

The sleek black design of the case elegantly blends into any environment, be it in the office, at home, or on the road. The rubber feet ensure a secure stand, while plug & play functionality ensures you can get started upon connection. No additional software is required.
