Compact design

The mixture does it - and the IB-HUB1428-C31 shows the way. It has two USB Type-C™ as well as two Type-A connectors and thus maintains the balance between the tried and tested connectors and the "new" ones, which are entering the working world and living rooms. This makes it the perfect companion for existing devices as well as for new acquisitions.

Fourfold USB performance

Favorite holiday photos need to be shared quickly with friends and family? No problem! With the USB 3.1 (Gen 2) standard it is now possible to transfer data to multiple devices simultaneously at twice the transfer rate of USB 3.0 - without having to repeatedly insert different storage media. This not only saves time, but also provides convenience.

13 cm integrated cable

By using the integrated cable you'll never ask yourself again "Where did I leave the right cable?" because now you are just ready to plug in the device.
